

Ecaterina Verona

b. 1993; Republic of Moldova

In my artworks I focus on contemporary expressionistic, figurative painting. I like to immerse myself in inner world of my characters, full of passion and tension. I use vivid colors, dynamic composition, and contrast between textured and flat-colored surfaces to convey this inner state and bring it to the viewer.

In this series of paintings, the interactions between the characters, a choreography in some way, is something between dancing, falling and flying together. Either way, it is a passionate interaction between people, affected by a single powerful force – be it music, wind, or gravity. To emphasize the influence of the environment I let the color of the ambiance influence the color of figures.
